

Do not change the no-call list to let unsolicited calls start again. We do not want to be bothered. That is why we are on the no-call list. If any solicitors do call in the future, we for sure will look unkindly on them and their solicited services. So they might as well not waste their time and ours.